Ongoing Training for Adults covering stage and on-Camera technique for TV, Commercials & Film

Instructor Sheri Whittington is returning to the classroom as an acting coach after working in Theatre Administration and Education. Sheri has instructed and coached over 300 performers from children through adults and has helped to mold some of Florida's finest acting talent. Her students can be found on Broadway, in National Touring Companies, Regional Theaters and attending some of the finest Colleges and Universities. Sheri encourages her students to reach their full potential with passion, confidence, respect and professionalism. Sheri's program incorporates truth in acting that can be utilized for stage, television, film or even the company boardroom. Sheri has a BA from USF majoring in Theatre Performance, and has continued her education with focused study in Film & Television, serving as an On-Set Tutor and Dialect Coach for area film and video productions. Sheri's passion is teaching and inspiring others to fulfill their performance dreams which led to founding and serving as the Artistic Director of the Looking Glass Theatre. Her directing credits include Jesus Christ Superstar, Nunsense, Tongues, Schoolhouse Rock, Trifles, Diva, Dy, DB & Me, Grease, Evita, & The Sound of Music. Other highlights include directing the elaborate staged reading of Lysistrata in collaboration with Gorilla Theatre and the Lysistrata Project for Peace. Sheri has performed on-stage, in leading roles with Bay Area productions that include Fiddler on the Roof, Talley & Son, Psycho Beach Party, Postcards, As You Like It, Return to the Forbidden Planet, and West Side Story. Sheri will appear in the next Powerstories Theater's production this spring, and is also privileged to be working with Girlstories outreach program. Sheri served for five years as the Artistic Director for the Young Dramatists Project with Gorilla Theatre, and as the Manager of Community Relations with the Patel Conservatory at the Tampa Bay Performing Arts Center. She has taught acting with a local Casting Director, Summerplay and the Young Actors Studio at USF, MJPA, ArtsCorp, YMCA, and the Patel Conservatory. She is very proud of her students, both in and out of the entertainment industry and is thrilled to be returning to the MJPA faculty.
